

MINISTRY TEAM MEMBERS

Your Awana Missionary Team, Mike & Becky Sexton & Joel & Virginia Cook, is committed to serving your church in any way that we can! These faithful team members also have a wide range of ministry skills and expertise, and would love to assist you in the Awana ministry along with us. You may be receiving an email or phone call from one of the team, or maybe the Lord is calling you to join us!

What are we looking for in a ministry team couple or individual? Those who are interested in serving the region in the Awana ministry who 1) are a current Awana commander or director in good standing in their local church, 2) have served in the Awana ministry for five years, 3) have a passion to serve on the team in the area of church care, outreach and events, or new church development. What responsibilities would a church care team member have? Care of five Awana churches near them, including prayer support, phone calling and emailing to pass on information, or offering encouragement and assistance. Members may also be involved in visiting clubs, and assisting in training.
